ANOTHER LARGE LOT OF PATENT SELF HEATING
SMOOTHING IRONS!

MANY important improvements have been made since the beginning of the present century, relieving as facilitating the labor of men by machinery and other modern improvements; but females have been nearly neglected until the introduction of the Patent Self Heating Smoothing Iron, which will relieve them, in a very great degree, from the excessive and fatiguing labor of Ironing, besides being a great saving of time and expense. This Iron combines economy, convenience, saving of labor, and despatch; one cent's worth of dry chemical supplies fuel for a whole day's constant ironing. Hard wood coal from the stove will answer the same purpose. It can be used in any room or in the open air. Flatters and Tailors Irons are constructed upon the same principle, and possess equal superiority.

The Foreign News.

Seven days later news by the Asia, which we present this morning, does not appear much more favorable to speedy peace than the news which preceded the death of Nicholas. The English people are, without doubt, tired of the war, and the first intelligence of the Emperor's death raised extravagant hopes of peace, and induced some disgraceful public rejoicings at the departure of Nicholas. But the developements thus far made in Russia, and the spirit manifested by the new Emperor, do not warrant the belief that Russia will now make any further concessions than would have been agreed to by Nicholas. The English government and people are ready to make peace without extreme exactions—and would even demand to leave Sebastopol standing, as a first class fortress, in the hands of the Russians. But Louis Napoleon will agree to no such thing. He insists upon the demolition of that strong hold, and the utter annihilation of Russian influence in the Black Sea. Prussia is likewise obstinate, and refusing to become a party to the Allied treaty of Dec 2, is to be excluded from the Vienna Conference. Meanwhile vast preparations are making for war, especially by Russia, and there are slight prospects of peace, in our judgment—unless, indeed, the not improbable occurrence takes place of a breach of the Anglo-French alliance.

It will be seen that there is some interesting news from Spain, relative to Cuban affairs—Gen Concha recommends concessions to the people of Cuba.

STATE ELECTIONS—The State Election in Connecticut takes place on Monday next, (April 2nd.) It is probable that the Know Nothing ticket will be elected. The candidate for Governor on that ticket is William T. Minor of Stamford, (Whig;) for Lieut. Governor Wm. Field of Hartford, (Free Soiler.) Secretary of State, N. D. Sperry of New Haven, (Whig;) Treasurer A. H. Ratlell of Middletown, (dem.) Comptroller, Alexander Mc Nill of New London, (dem.) The nominations for Congress on the same ticket are—1st District, Epis Clark, Jr., of Hartford, 2d, John Woodruff, 3d, of New Haven, 3d, Henry Hammond, of Killingly 4th, Joshua B Ferre, of Stamford.—Several of the above candidates are also in nomination by the Whigs or democrats.

In Rhode Island, the election takes place on Wednesday, April 4. William W Hoppin of Providence has been placed in nomination for Governor, by both Whigs and Know Nothings, and A. F Potter by the democrats. For Lieut. Governor, John J Reynolds, Whig; Nicholas Brown, dem and Anderson C Read, K. N. are the candidates. For Congress—United Eastern District, Nath'l B Durfee, present member, is the Whig and K. N nominee. The late Davis the democratic. In the Western District, the Know Nothings and democrats have re nominated Benj M Tobriston, and the Whigs have made no nomination.

KANSAS. On Friday the first territorial Legislature was to be elected in Kansas. It will consist of 13 Councillors and about 26 Representatives. There are now, according to the census, over 3000 voters in the Territory. The whole population cannot fall short of 7000. How much it was increased on election day by legal voters sent over from Missouri, remains to be seen.

The National Magazine for April (Clinton & Phillips, publishers, New York) contains many attractive and interesting articles. Among them we notice "Scenes of Very Fashionable Life illustrated," "Israel and the Pyramids," "The Industrial Aristocracy of Europe," "The City of the Sultan," "Safe Scene in Mexico," &c.

The article upon "The Political Aristocracy of Europe," was written by one of our townsmen, (Mr B. H. Mace.) It presents a succinct view of the rise and progress of feudalism in Europe which the author considers the origin and basis of the present political aristocracy—and the relation held by that aristocracy to the monarchies and to the people, both in the earlier and later ages. The article exhibits historical research.

STRAWS COURT. The Pinkney case is now in its ninth day. The testimony was nearly or quite all in last night, and it is expected that Mr Binkley will commence his argument for the defence this forenoon. It is probable the arguments will occupy to day and Monday.

Tuesday is the time fixed to the commencement of a civil term of the Court.

NEW ARRANGEMENT. It will be seen that on and after Monday next by the new arrangement on the Androscoggin & Kennebec railroads, there will be two through trains to Boston daily. The first leaves Pittsfield at 6.15 A M and the second at 10 20 A M. Pinkham's stages connect with each train.

"ANCHORAGE.—The Sandwich Islands are certainly becoming the most highly civilized of modern nations. Under the new government of King Kamehameha IV, Her Royal Highness, the Princess Victoria Kamamalu has been appointed Prime Minister!

It is said the public printing of Congress and the various departments has cost the country about two hundred millions of dollars during the past year!

FIRST OF THE SEASON. Our friend Thomas Bancroft has sent us a bunch of fine large radishes, from his green-house. They are suggestive of June. Mr B. is an excellent and successful gardener.

CHANGE OF TIME. To-morrow being the first Sunday in April, the ringing of the bells for afternoon services will be changed, from two o'clock to a quarter before three.

The erection of the depot buildings of the Piscataquis & Kennebec railroad is under the direction of Mr. Bowers, Chief Engineer of the road.

Russell was appointed Captain of the Watch.

Assistant Engineers of the Fire Department—Albert Dole, Archibald F. Leighton, Silas S. Lowe.

Measurers of Corn, Grain and Salt—William Mullen, Uriah P Tapley, James W. Jordan.

Measurers of Wood and Bark—John O. Kendrick, Benj H. Lowden, James R. Mansell, Abijah Dudley, Hiram B Seward.

Weighers of Hay—Geo. D L. Sargent, Chas. G Russell, Henry Morrill, Wm. D McLaughlin.

An order was passed appointing the Mayor and such Aldermen as he may select, a Committee to employ an Agent to sell Liquors, and to fix his compensation; said Committee to have full power to purchase such liquors, on account of the city, as may be required to furnish said agency, and to establish such rules for the government of the agency as they may deem proper, to be reported to the Board of Aldermen for approval.

An application of Wm B. Eaton for the use of the City Hall, for theatrical purposes, was read and laid on the table.

[Reported for the Whig and Courier.]

POLICE COURT, March 29th.—In the morning Mr. Walker found at his office notices of various thefts the night before, but had some doubt of his authority to make arrests, and declined to act in the matter, but learning that the new Sheriff had not been qualified so that he was yet a deputy under the old Sheriff he proceeded, and first arrested Timothy Tucker, Mark Conoly, Andrew Donavan, and Mary Conoly, and committed them.

Assisted by Deputy Marshal Emerson he then searched various houses on Hancock and Washington streets. In Conoly's house there was found, under the floor, various goods, consisting of sheets, blankets, petticoats, towels, pillow cases, table covers, shawls, robes, woolen skirts, yarn, wool, one quilt, log stone, books, and other articles too numerous to mention. Conoly and wife were ordered to give bonds in the sum of two hundred dollars, failing to do which they were committed to jail.—The others were discharged.

The Conoly house has been a depot for thieves a long time. A man was robbed in the same house, the night before, of forty dollars in money, which was not found.

The Burning of Moscow.

A correspondent of the Philadelphia North American in consequence of the circulation of a paragraph taken from an Iowa paper, in which it was announced, on the alleged authority of Senator Douglas that the city of Moscow was not burnt in 1812 as the world has believed, has availed himself of the occasion to refer the following portion of a letter written by Count Segur, who was present at the time, and whose statements have generally been received as authority:

"Having arrived there myself in August, 1814 where I remained till I left it leaving May, I proceeded to know the result as to Moscow at that time, and annex it here for a reference to it did, however, because I suppose the pleasure many attributed to Senator Douglas needs any refutation with well informed persons but it did behet that they may afford some interest to your readers. The French army entered Moscow on the second day (September O S) 1812, Kutusoff having evacuated it the day or two previously. The inhabitants had fled from it, were engaged at the conflagration, and were prevented by ignorant of the intention of Count Rostopchin, the military Governor, to destroy that venerable city on its occupation by the enemy.

On Sunday, about noon, Napoleon established his headquarters in the Kremlin, and on Monday night the city was discovered to be on fire in innumerable places. This terrible conflagration lasted eight days, during six of which it raged with equal fury.

About seven eighths of the city, in size, and nearly all the most magnificent establishments of the nobility, with their costly libraries, galleries of the fine arts, &c, were destroyed. At the date of my arrival nearly two years after the conflagration, the great street called Tverskaya, which in extent and the splendor of its edifices would have presented with the pride of any capital in Europe, was still almost entirely in ruins, a solitary mansion here and there, in process of reconstruction, being the only marks of returning vitality. In Kitay Gorad, or Chinese town, the business part of Moscow, lying under the Kremlin, and walled in, which contained immense depots of flour, grain, &c., all the warehouses and shops and most of the restaurants and coffee houses, not a single building was burned.

It is beyond there walls that are found the Boulevards, and happier our street, the immense circle is covered and in part occupied, by the nobility, and the residences of the officials with the best citizens generally. Many of these buildings are surrounded by extensive grounds, gardens, walled in, and are at considerable distance asunder, to which, mainly, and to the fact that a portion of the French army was quartered there, may be attributed the preservation of about one eighth of the city in fact, which was saved by the almost superhuman exertions of the French soldiers.

The Kremlin, or Citadel, is an irregular pentagon occupied by the French, and protected by brick walls of from twenty to thirty feet in light, (not many, as Senator Douglas is reported to have said,) was also preserved. Not a single magazine blew up and crash the church of Ivan Velekoy, as stated. The rest of the walls of that ancient Medival, and the prostration of one tall of the towers and bastions (now probably restored) of the old Tartar fortress, were caused by the explosion of mines placed under them by Napoleon when he evacuated Moscow, and which but for the failure of some of them to ignite, would have left the whole Kremlin, with its rich treasures churches, two Imperial palaces &c., a complete mass of ruins.

How far Moscow may claim to have been a city of, may partly be inferred from a statistical table now before me, published by the Russian government after the evacuation.

When the French entered Moscow, a census of 2357 brick houses, of which 2150 were burned. But the number must be supposed to have included those small structures so general in Russia, or even the boarded edifices with the roofs painted so as to look, occasionally quite rich, which are quite and very handsome, and which are formed by the Memorials represented with their green spaces and capped by the gilded cupolas, pinnacles, &c.

IMPORTANT FROM SPAIN!

MAILPAN, TELEGRAPH OFFICE, March 30th, 1855

The royal mail steamship Asia, from Liverpool, March 17th, arrived at this port, at 2, P M., Thursday, March 29 h.

Steamship Union sailed from Southampton, 14th, with 63 passengers.

The Emperor's Manifesto.

St Petersburg, March 26.—"Valiant Warriors!—faith ul defenders of the Church, Throne, and Country!—It has pleased Almighty God to visit us with the most painful and grievous loss. We have all lost our common father and benefactor! In the midst of his unwearied care for Russia's prosperity and the glory of the Russian arms, the Emperor Nicholas Paulovitch, my most Beloved Father, has departed to eternal life. His last words were 'I thank the glorious loyal Guards, who in 1825 saved Russia, and I also thank the brave army and the fleet—and I pray God to maintain the courage and spirit by which they have distinguished themselves under me. So long as this spirit remains upheld, Russia's tranquility is secured both within and without. Then woe to her enemies. I loved my people as my own children, and strove as much as I could to improve their condition. If I was not entirely successful in that respect it was from no want of will, but because I was unable to devise anything better, or to do more."

"May these ever memorable words remain preserved in your hearts, as a proof of his sincere love for you, which I share to the largest extent. And let them be a pledge of your devotion for me, and Russia."

ALEXANDER

A postscript proceeds to the Guards the usual form worn by the deceased Emperor, and directed from custom on their encountering the ranks of Nicholas.

The manifesto concludes "May the sacred memory of Nicholas survive in our ranks as a mirror to be fine, and for the glory of Russia.

ALEXANDER"

The manifesto is considered warlike.

The Last Hours of Nicholas I

Various reports are circulated, respecting the last words of the Emperor Nicholas Accord ing to English accounts, Nicholas, addressing Alexander, adjured him to make peace, even at the loss of Russian influence in the Black Sea—that he (Nicholas) would take the responsibility on his head not to have died in the possession by the Anglo-French alliance—and that Alexander's constant effort should be to detach France from England, and unite Russia with Austria and Prussia.

Nicholas added that perhaps his pride had been excessive—but that God had humbled him.

The above is probably manufactured for the English market.

The Russian account says that Nicholas passed the last hours in the consolations of religion. Having bid adieu to all the members of his family individually he said to the Empress "Tell your brother Fritz (King of Prussia) to adhere to Russia, and never forget his father's policy."

Nicholas then took leave of Counts Orlof Adlerberg—also of some of Igolenoski and the favorite grenadiers, of the household and personal attendants. All except the family having retired, he asked the Empress to repeat the Lord's prayer. At the words "Thy will be done on earth as in Heaven" Nicholas fervently responded, "Always! always! always!" Soon after these words, he added, "I hope God will open for me his arms." He then became partially insensible for two hours. At noon, he said something about a message to a dear friend, not named and something of Alexander, and the garrison of Sebastopol. A few minutes afterwards he gave a deep sigh and expired.

His body was exposed, face uncovered, in the Chapel Ardente, until March 16th, when it was buried with the usual imperial solemnities.

The Vienna Conference.

The Congress of Vienna formally met on Thursday, the 15th of March.

There were present, one French, two English, two Austrian, and one Turkish Representative.

The Russian Plenipotentiary was not present.

Telegraphic reports say the discussion of the general basis of negotiations terminated satisfactorily.

Rumors are current that Austria and England would be content without the demolition of Sebastopol, but that Napoleon absolutely insists on that condition.

LATER—THE CONFERENCES. Vienna, Friday, 16th.—At the Conferences yesterday the Plenipotentiaries exchanged their powers, but proceedings were entered upon.

The four Points, and the interpretation given to them, by the Allies, having been set forth, the Representatives of Russia accepted them verbally. One of the Plenipotentiaries was hereupon deputed to draw up a protocol of this, which is to be signed tomorrow (Saturday) the first thing when the Ambassadors meet, and this document will constitute the basis of negotiations for peace.

Failure of Gen. Wedell's Mission.

Paris, Friday Night.—The Mission of Gen Wedell has completely failed. Prussia refuses to accede to the treaty with the Allies, and will not, therefore, be admitted to participate in the Conferences.

From Sebastopol.

The Allies have resumed firing upon the town. Letters of March first explain the discrepancy between the French and Russian accounts of the storming of the redoubts on the night of February 23d. Both accounts were correct. The French did storm and capture the Russian redoubts, but finding them untenable, from a murderous fire of the wall batteries, they blew up the redoubts and retired, with a loss of 100 killed and 200 wounded.

Feb. 27th.—The dead were buried during a truce of one hour.

March 1st.—The following is Menschikoff's last despatch: "During last night, we erected a second redoubt in front of that which is on the left side of our fortifications. It was impossible for the enemy to prevent us."

Nothing of importance has occurred at Eupatoria.

March 2d.—Balaklava advices report sickness increasing—weather clear, and frosty.—Three miles of railway now in operation. The Allies repair is greatly strengthened. Gen Burgoyne, the English Chief of Engineers, has left. He is succeeded by Gen Jones, who recommended, contrary to Napier's advice, an attack of Cronstadt.

March 3d.—The Russians are fortifying in formidable manner, the valley of Inkermann—are erecting two tier batteries at Kamara, to threaten Balaklava—and have sunk two more ships in the harbor of Sebastopol.

March 7th.—An official French despatch, with information of the death of the Emperor Nicholas has just arrived. Yesterday we threw rockets upon Kamiesch, which set the town on fire. Two Russian officers have deserted to the English. Our siege-works are proceeding with the greatest activity.

Signed, BRUAT, Vice Admiral.

March 8th.—Nothing important had occurred. The reported battle between the Allied army and the Russians, in which Gen Osten Sacken was reported wounded, is false.

Austria.

Saturday Morning, 10th.—Nothing later.—The Austrian government has notified France and England that the mission of the Austrian Archduke William to St Petersburg, is an act of sympathy merely, and has no political object.

Austria has also issued a new circular dated March 8th, to the Germanic Federal Governments, informing them that the Austrian Commissioner will present to the Diet a new proposition towards the Federal mobilization of the Germanic contingent. The circular also insists on the necessity of being prepared for all eventualities, and mentions that the Emperor Alexander has authorized Gortschakoff to negotiate for peace, on the basis sanctioned by the late Emperor.

Prussia.

Prussia also issued a circular dated March 8th, to its diplomatic and consular agents—stating that there is reason to believe that the two nations now in progress will terminate in peace. Prussia by a decree, likewise dated March 8th, prohibits the exportation of contraband articles of war. Much talk of autograph letters are passing between the monarchs of Europe.

Alexander has written to the King of Prussia, soliciting his advice.

The King of Prussia, has notified England and France of Nicholas' death, and the Emperor of Austria has written Napoleon that he thanks the negotiations will lead to peace.

Russia.

Menschikoff has gone to Moscow.

The two Grand Dukes are on the way to St Petersburg from the Crimea.

It is not true that the Grand Duke Michael was killed.

Odessa Sackim was commanding within Sebastopol and Luders at Odessa.

No news of importance from the Danube.

Count Ziwousky is organizing at Schumla a second regiment of Turkish Cossacks, in which Poles will be enrolled.

Syria.

Disturbances have occurred in Syria. 1500 Turk ish troops have gone to Beyrout.

Great Britain.

Since the sailing of the Union, proceedings in Parliament had been unimportant.

Ship James Chester abandoned at sea, was picked up by the mate and six of the crew of the English ship Marathon, and brought into Liverpool.

The committee of inquiry into the state of the army before Sebastopol, had been seven days in session and continued.

The Earl of Lucan, Colonel Kinloch, a Commissariat officer, and J. M McDonald administrator of the London Times fund, were examined. Their evidence confirms the worst reports of mismanagement.

The Patriotic Fund exceeds one million sterling.

The Great Republic had arrived in London. No dock big enough to admit her.

The Great Britain steamer sailed from Cork, on the 13th, with 1760 men for the Crimea.

The Bank of England has taken the whole of the guaranteed Jamaica loan of half a million sterling.

An encampment is preparing for the Foreign Legion near Folkstone.

The general aspect of monetary and commercial affairs has undergone a favorable change, and hopes of a cessation of hostilities are once more general.

Gold is increasing, but until the proposals of the new Chancellor of Exchequer with respect of a loan, and the result of the conference at Vienna be known, the future course of the money market must remain undecided.

Discounts at present are 4 to 4½ for first class short bills.

Ship Sea Shadow arrived from Australia with 80,000 ounces of gold and Steamer Argo arrives with 400 passengers and 500 lbs of gold.

All was quiet at Gallipoli. The scurvy was not bad.

France.

The Emperor's visit to the Crimea continues doubtful.

Warlike preparations are active as ever.

Orders are given to prepare transports from Toulon for 60,000 men and 8000 horses.

Gen. Wedell, Prussian Envoy, has returned to Paris.

The Moniteur officially contradicts the calumny circulated against Gen Forey, that he was in correspondence with the enemy. Forey is, however, recalled.

Belgium.

The Ministerial crisis continues.

M. Theux is charged to form a Cabinet.

Spain.

Madrid correspondence gives details of the recent conspiracy in Cuba, and says government has received confidential messages from Gen Concha. The condition of Cuba inspired him with considerable uneasiness.

He recommends that concessions be made to the Colony, and that Cuban Deputies be sent to the Spanish Cortes. He begs the government not to emancipate the slaves, which he says would be a fatal measure, and would cause Cuba to seek admission into the United States.

If the Cubans be not pacified by concessions, he says 20 000 troops could not retain Cuba to Spain.

On March 8th, the government said in the Cortes, that tranquility was restored in Cuba, and the government would do its utmost to prevent further difficulties.

A vote of satisfaction was agreed to unanimously by the Chambers.

Italy.

Funeral obsequies of the Duke of Genoa, were celebrated at Turin on the 10th.

Bavaria.

The proprietor, in calling the attention of the public to this preparation, does so with a feeling of the utmost confidence in its virtues and adaptation to the diseases for which it is recommended.

It is a new and untried article, but so far it has stood the test of a ten years' trial before the American people, and its reputation and sale is now established by any similar preparation ever known. The testimonials in its favor given by the most prominent and well known Physicians and Individuals in all parts of the country is unanimous. The following from your own State is respectfully submitted, referring any who may still doubt, to my Almanac, or Practical Receipt Book for Manufacturers and Families, to be had gratis of all the Agents for the German Bitters.

TESTIMONY FROM MAINE.

Capt Daniel Woolf, Troubadour, Maine, July 16, 1853, says: I was taken with one year ago last August, upon the passage from Matanzas to Charleston, S.C. At the latter place I took medicine and procured a physician, but for ten days could obtain no relief, no sleep or appetite. At last I took a newspaper having your advertisement of Dr. Hoofland's German Bitters in it, I read for some time lightly. This was about 10 o'clock, at 11 o'clock I took the first dose, and another at 6 o'clock. The effect was so rapid on me that I had a good appetite for supper, and rested well that night, and the next day found me a well man.—I have not been without your medicine since, having used both in Baltimore, Charleston, and the West Indies. I feel desirous, transported to this ant land. The remains of the late and many other distinguished persons, are entrusted in recommendation of this kind.

DR. EDWARDS'S HUMOR DISCOVERY BLOOD PURIFIER.

Its Daily Healing Cures show

ASTONISHMENT THE WORLD!

Diseases that have long baffled all medical science, yield like magic to the wonderful and powerful virtues of

WONDERFUL MEDICINE.

Hundreds are calling on this medicine, and say the half was never told them.

If you have a Complaint, three bottles will cure it.

If you have Scrofula three to seven bottles will cure it.

Dissolve six bottles will cure Salt Rheum.

One or two bottles will cure Pimples on the face.

Two or three bottles will cure Scurvy, Lumbago and Scald Head.

One to three bottles will cure Running Sore Mouth.

One to five bottles will cure Rheumatism.

Three or four bottles will cure old running Sores and Ulcers.

One or two bottles will cure Barber's Itch.

One to six bottles will cure Canker in the mouth, throat, stomach and bowels.

For Liver Complaint and Jaundice,

It is doing the most wonderful, astonishing cures. Its effects are new, startling and instantaneous, driving the poisons of the blood on the surface, causing the skin, eruptions, or sores to discharge large quantities of matter, thereby purifying the blood, and leaving the system pure and healthy. Its cures are permanent and lasting.

FOR DYSPEPSIA—One bottle will convince you there is nothing like it.

For Catarrh and Humors.

It is the most remedy ever offered. One widow lady in Lawrence, has been troubled with catarrh for years, by the use of two bottles says she is now quite well.

FOR COSTIVENESS—one gentleman says it was the only medicine to give relief.

For Rheumatism,

It is quicker of relief than any other remedy.

A young man was sick six months with Asthma, that he had to leave college, three bottles cured him, and he has now resumed his studies.

One bottle in Salem was perfectly cured of Periodical Sick Head, by the use of two bottles.

"It cured me, and will cure you."

READ! READ! READ!!

Cured of a lady who had been sick for years with

SCROFULA!!

I have been troubled for many years with a Scrofula Humor and all means for relief together was unable to do anything at all.

I have employed different physicians, and taken different kinds of medicine with but temporary relief. I will myself growing worse, and had almost given up great recovery.

One day a friend called to see me, and advised me to take Dr. Edwards' Humor Discovery and Blood Purifier. I took a bottle, which made me feel considerable better. I then continued from bottles and can say I have not been so well for years. I call myself quite well. Those who have been sick to Maine, can have me returning health.

Yours Respectfully

MARTHA BANGHART,

Salem, Dec. 20th, '53.

Mr. Stevens, Pastor of one of the Methodist Churches in Lawrence, says: I take pleasure in stating that after having used your Blood Purifier in my family, and witnessed its great effects, I can fully recommend it to the public for I verily believe it is what it purports to be, viz: A Blood Purifier. A. IMPORTANT INFORMATION to Inventors. The subscriber, late Assistant of the U. S. Patent Office, under the Act of 1849 has enlarged his present advantages, in applying for Patents, superior to those enjoyed by inventors while he was connected with the Office, and the same can be secured in a shorter time than by those who are personally unknown at the Office. Those who are unacquainted with the modus operandi of obtaining Patents are frequently subjected to long delays, and in many cases to the loss of their inventions, by the employment of incompetent persons, who are interested in procuring patents for the sake of the fees. Without a personal knowledge of the mode of conducting applications at the Office, no one can be sure that his case is in the hands of a person who will not neglect it. Inventors who employ the subscriber may rest assured that their business will be done with fidelity, promptness and dispatch, and on the most reasonable terms. Having had many years experience as a Patent Solicitor, and been connected with some of the most successful Patent Solicitors in the United States, and have had occasion in making inventions that they cannot employ a person more competent and trustworthy, and more capable of putting their applications in such a form to secure for them as early and favorable consideration as Patent Office will allow.

DR. J. H. SCHENCK'S PULMONIC SYRUP,

THE proprietor of this medicine was himself, many years ago, reduced so low as to be given up by his physicians and friends, in the last stage of Consumption. When all hopes of ever getting well had fled, he was strongly recommended to use a syrup made from an old Indian receipt, which succeeded in effectually curing him. The family physicians and a large number of respectables gentlemen certified to the facts of that case, and soon the Pulmonic Syrup obtained a reputation never equalled in that section of the country. Creating as this cure did, a sensation second to that only of a miracle, Dr. Schenck was waited upon by many similarly afflicted, to whom he administered the syrup with the same beneficial results. In fact, such was the notoriety of this medicine, that counterfeiters had their attention drawn toward it, doing reputation of it from having witness did not prove powerful and freely extended the hand of friendship and encouragement to Dr. Schenck, and more liberal the medicine to the public, and used at his daily practice.

To what extent it operates upon the system in the way we state the Pulmonic Syrup does, it produces a health action in the morbid parts, by purifying their foul disease, it promotes the expectorations, all of the cough, opens the matter on the lungs, and when it is discharged, it leaves the opening that the breaking of the tubercles in
